“It is a time when we can come to the table together to honor our roots and agricultural producers that provide for our community.

AgDay is a long-standing tradition and celebration of Colorado agriculture and CSU’s College of Agricultural Sciences. It is a time when we can come to the table together to honor our roots and the agricultural producers that provide for our community.

The pre-game event features the state’s agricultural growers and producers preparing Colorado’s premier outdoor barbecue from quality Colorado food products to fund scholarships for agricultural sciences students.

We are proud to host AgDay along with Colorado agricultural organizations and associations. This tradition honors both the institution’s roots and Colorado’s rich agricultural history in a celebration that appeals to all ages.
