Superintendents: Kim Eastwood and Josey Pukrop

Eligibility:

The prepared public speaking contest is open to two participants per county who are between 14 and 18 years of age as of December 31 of the previous year.

Previous winners may enter but will not be eligible for the National Western 4-H Roundup trip. In the event a previous winner wins, second place would win the Western 4-H Roundup trip.

Contest Rules:

1. Contestants can prepare a speech on any topic relative to today's youth, but they must relate it to 4-H in some way.
In addition, topics and content must be 4-H appropriate. We ask that all presenters be sensitive to the diverse audience that attends the event. All materials to be presented are subject to review and approval by the superintendents. Materials which include foul language, racial or religious overtones, or other topics/subjects deemed inappropriate by the superintendents will not be allowed. The judges will make the final determination.
2. Contestants may not use any costumes, posters, visual aids, or props for their presentations.
3. Contestants are not allowed to present any items to the judges.
4. Each speech will be timed and must be between 6-8 minutes in duration. Two points will be deducted for each 30 seconds over or under the time limit. Participants will be given a 30-second warning before the end of the time period.
5. Contestants may use notes. However, excessive use of notes may be counted against the contestant. This will be at the discretion of the judges.
6. Contestant order will be determined by a random drawing and announced before the contest begins.
7. Judging will be done by adult judges.
8. Ties will be broken by the judges.
9. Judges will use the Colorado State Speech Contest Prepared Speech Score Sheet.

Awards:

1. Awards will be announced, and ribbons will go to the top four (4) presentations.
