

Agreement

I, _____, a member of _____ 4-H Club agree to participate fully in the First Year Lamb Project. I understand the expectations and understand that my family and I will participate fully by following these guidelines:

- Attending at least 3 of the 4 project meetings from March to July
- Paying for one First Year Lamb Project market lamb from sale proceeds at the Junior Livestock Sale at the El Paso County Fair. The exhibitor may sell any species to cover this cost. ordered (estimated cost between $500 (plus insurance)). If the member does not have an animal to sell due to rule violations, not making weight or the death of the animal. Payment will be out of pocket expense by the member or their family.
- Adhering to the deadlines and rules of the CSU Extension 4-H Program and El Paso County Fair.
- Entering the “First Year Lamb Project class.
- Writing 3 letters of correspondence to your lamb sponsor throughout the program. The first letter should be postmarked by May 15th. The second letter should be postmarked by July 1st and the third letter should be postmarked no later than July 25th. A copy of the letter should be emailed to the Extension office at the time of mailing. Receipt and postmark of letters will be verified with sponsors.
- Contacting the project leaders, my 4-H Club Leaders, and/or the Extension Office whenever I have questions.

First Year Market Lamb Project Member and Parent/Guardian agrees by signing you and your parents agree to the above listed stipulations. Failure to comply will result in you and your family being personally responsible for all listed costs prior to fair entry being accepted.

Member Signature: _____

Signature: _____

*In 2026, cost per lamb will be determined by the total ordered (estimated cost between $500 (plus insurance))

Return this agreement to the Extension Office no later than April 1st.

Colorado State University Extension is an equal opportunity provider. Colorado State University does not discriminate on the basis of disability and is committed to providing reasonable accommodations. CSU's Office of Engagement and Extension ensures meaningful access and equal opportunities to participate to individuals whose first language is not English.